

Daily Appeal.

CONTINUED.—In the opposition to the "National Democracy,"—
Knox—Speaks—The National Democracy.

"A United Opposition"—is already on the part of the Federal party.

Rebel—Democrats—The South
is bound to defeat the rebels.

Democrats—Ingraham—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future
time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the South which we intend to witness.

What will be the result?—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future

time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the

South which we intend to witness.

What will be the result?—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future

time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the

South which we intend to witness.

What will be the result?—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future

time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the

South which we intend to witness.

What will be the result?—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future

time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the

South which we intend to witness.

What will be the result?—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future

time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the

South which we intend to witness.

What will be the result?—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future

time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the

South which we intend to witness.

What will be the result?—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future

time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the

South which we intend to witness.

What will be the result?—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future

time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the

South which we intend to witness.

What will be the result?—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future

time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the

South which we intend to witness.

What will be the result?—Whigs, and
the other old Democrats are up in future

time, with the Whigs.

They have come to stay in the opposition.

In no respect of their numerical and relative strength, the rebels are in the lead.

With their elements of opposition, they

that they can do no more whatever for the

Knox—Nothing but defeat—Wings of the South which we intend to witness.

Insurance.

Strauss, Lehman & Co.
Phoenix Insurance Company,
HARTFORD, CONN.
Cash Capital $100,000.00
Surplus—$210,000.00
$310,000.00

No. 202 Main Street.

A PRIL 19, 1859.

RECEIVED PER EXPRESS:

WILLIAMS, GREENE &
CO., NEW YORK.

WILLIAMS, GREENE &
CO., NEW YORK.